

NEWS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DATE: November 3, 2014

CONTACT: Melissa Benik
703.284.5916
info@hrleadership.org

HRLA NOMINATIONS & SCHOLARSHIPS SEASON KICKOFF

With a vision to promote and advance human resource excellence, the Human Resource Leadership Awards of Greater Washington (HRLA) was founded in 2001 by Marymount University and local business executives. HRLA has evolved to more than just an awards program by providing educational and networking opportunities to grow as a business professional.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

HRLA would like to recognize the outstanding achievements of executive human resources professionals within the Greater Washington area in the following award categories:

Leadership
Strategic Alignment
Innovation
Mentoring
Corporate Social Responsibility
Promoting Ethical Behavior

Nominate someone or a team you know- a direct report, colleague, boss, client, mentor, or even yourself. The nomination form and description of criteria are available at:
www.hrleadership.org/2015awardapplication

HRLA will be offering Award Application Boot Camps from November 2014-February 2015 to assist you in the process. There will be former HRLA judges present, as well as current HRLA Nominations and Judging Committee Members.

For more information, go to: <http://hrleadership.org/bootcamp>

Winners and finalists are announced at the Ritz-Carlton, Pentagon City for the 14th Annual Gala
Award Application Deadline: March 15, 2015

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR EMERGING HR LEADERS

Human Resources Leadership Awards offers up to three $4,000 scholarships to support ambitious HR professionals pursuing a graduate or undergraduate degree in the Human Resources field at accredited universities in the Greater Washington, DC area. At least one scholarship will be awarded to a student enrolled at Marymount University.

Scholarship Applications: www.hrleadership.org/scholarships

Scholarship Deadline: March 13, 2015

Scholarship Winners Announced: April 13, 2015

Scholarship Presentation: 14th Annual HRLA Gala on June 9, 2015