

Karen Kalantzis

CEO and Majority Owner

Corporate Network Services, Inc.

Karen Kalantzis is the CEO and majority owner of Corporate Network Services, Inc. Karen leveraged her in-depth knowledge in the computer reseller industry to start the company, along with her partner, in 1993. Her previous work experience includes Hewlett-Packard Company, Falcon Microsystems and MBI Business Center. Karen was also named a “CEO You Need to Know” by the Maryland Gazette in September 2008.

Active in the local business community, Karen is President of the Poolesville Community and Economic Development Committee, member of Women Business Owners of Montgomery County, and member of the Bethesda and Poolesville Chambers of Commerce. She earned an MBA from George Washington University and a Bachelor of Science degree from Indiana University with High Distinction. In her time away from the office, Karen enjoys traveling, going to shows, and reading. On Friday evenings, she attends adult Greek School, having recovered from the horrors of attending (and never graduating) as a child in Chicago.
